

“Gideon Group” Rules of Conduct

1. All activities comply with the law.
2. We adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional behavior.
3. Our group does not resort to violence under any circumstances and condemn violence of any kind.
4. We do NOT silence the other side. We encourage a discussion based on truth and facts that promotes dialogue. We condemn the spread of lies and misinformation.
5. Participants should treat all other persons with courtesy and respect regardless of their viewpoint. Participants must refrain from verbal or physical abuse and any form of harassment.
6. Failure to comply with any of the above stated rules of conduct may result in immediate dismissal without hearing from the program.